THANK YOU FOR ALL
YOUR WORK SO FAR AND
FOR WHAT'S TO COME.....

The self-study process is nearly done

- Evaluated and reflected on our programs and their effectiveness
- Identified opportunities for improvement
- Many have been implemented or are underway
- Final self-study narrative will be submitted in less than two weeks

Purpose of the retreat

- Prepare and plan for the accreditation site visit – September 26-28!
- Get acquainted with college-wide curriculum and programs
- Calibrate within and among disciplines
- Get input - clarify items, share concerns
- Celebrate our work and our success

Recap: self-study has six standards

Standard 1 - Institutional Effectiveness

Standard 2 – Educational Program (Instruction, Biomedical, Behavioral Sciences, Clinical Science)

Standard 3 – Faculty and Staff

Standard 4 – Educational Support Services

Standard 5 – Patient Care Services

Standard 6 – Research Program

Mock Site Visit – Jan 23-24

- Site visitors provided feedback on ~100 items
- We've created rubrics, added tables/flowcharts, clarified metrics, added documentation, etc.

- 22-members consisting of chairs and co-chairs of each standard, and three dean's office liaisons. Led by Dr. Garcia and Christina Perez.

Some fun things

- Help yourself to some stress reducers or self care items before you leave.
- We have to take care of ourselves before we can take care of the site visit!
